With spring in bloom, ACPM members in Ontario can only think of.... the Ontario Regional Council Annual Golf Tournament! This year we are at Clublink's Eagle Ridge Golf Club, a short drive west of the GTA, for our highly anticipated event.

One of the hallmarks of a good golf course is variety, and Eagle Ridge Golf Club certainly delivers. This 18-hole course near Georgetown, just west of Toronto offers a superb balance of tree-lined holes, rolling terrain and beautiful valleys. Designed in the late 1950s by respected architect Robbie Robinson, a member of the Canadian Golf Hall of Fame, Eagle Ridge's signature is the beautiful valley holes with their elevated tees. The Clubhouse offers a traditional and warm appeal with comfortable seating where we will enjoy our BBQ lunch and prizes following the tournament.

From Toronto:

- Take Hwy 401 to Mississauga Road Exit
- Proceed north to Mayfield Road
- Go west for 5 kilometres on Mayfield Road to the T-Junction
- Follow the signs on the golf course which are is on the left hand side
