

Advertising Copy

President & Chief Executive Officer Vestcor Inc.

Location: Fredericton, NB, Canada

Vestcor is one of Canada's leading investment management and pension and employee benefits administration services organizations and the largest investment manager in Atlantic Canada. Renowned for its innovative and cost-effective services, its 150 New Brunswick-based professionals provide services to 111,000 individual plan members and more than 140 employer groups.

Due to a planned retirement, Vestcor is seeking an experienced executive to join as its next President & Chief Executive Officer. Reporting directly to the Board of Directors, the new CEO is responsible for providing the strategic direction, risk and opportunities management and leadership necessary to ensure the efficient, effective, and sustainable operation of Vestcor Inc. Core to this role is working successfully with Vestcor's numerous public sector pension plan and benefit plan clients ensuring the provision of exceptional service that enables both current and future client plans.

The ideal candidate is an engaged and hands-on business leader who brings a track record of success in the pension / investment industry, or within the broader financial services sector. Armed with a strong growth orientation, the preferred candidate brings knowledge of institutional investment management, preferably across a multi-asset class environment, technology, and member service delivery. Experience leading within a complex, multi-stakeholder environment will be key to success in this role as will working with a Board of Directors.

This is a career building and highly visible role ideally suited a hands-on leader with superior leadership skills who wants to work in a high performing and collegial organization. The role is located in Fredericton, New Brunswick, an ideal community to raise a family. The area is renowned for being a recreational paradise, has a vibrant arts and culture scene, and offers affordable housing. There is easy access to Toronto, ON, Montreal, PQ, and Halifax.

Vestcor has partnered with Boyden for this critical recruitment. To explore this opportunity further, please apply directly on the Boyden website: <https://boyden.thriveapp.ly/job/2206>

We thank all applicants for their interest, however ONLY those under consideration for the role will be contacted.